

Parent Volunteer Contract

Effective July 1, 2007

In order to keep our tuition prices low, we are now asking parents to keep track of their time spent contributing to Blossom House Nursery School. Effective July 1st, parents will be asked to volunteer 12 hours a year (July 1st to July 1st the following year). An amount of $12 will account for one hour worth of volunteer work. We will offer an option for parents to pay for their hours ($12 per month), which would replace any outside volunteer work. If you are doing something for Blossom House that costs money, please get approval from the director. For every $12 of your own money that you might spend, you may mark off an hour of volunteer work time, or get a reimbursement from the school. In either case please remember to bring in any receipts you may acquire. If the hours are not met at the end of the year or upon withdrawing then a $12 charge will be billed for every unmet hour. If your child is not enrolled for all 12 months, then it will be prorated at one hour for every month enrolled at Blossom House.

Please check the any or all boxes which contain areas you would like to use as volunteer time. We will then contact you on how exactly you can help.

Thank You!
